

For which of the following facts do you have to cite a source?

+3

- A A carbon atom has 6 electrons.
- B Vaccination against rabies was developed by Louis Pasteur.
- C In the United States, 8% of children suffer from food allergies; peanut is the most common source of allergy.
- D The source should be credited for all of the above.

Answer: C